

Genetically Modified Crops on National Wildlife Refuges Southeast Region

6/25/09

According to the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, the Southeast Region comprises of 128 national wildlife refuges. Of these 128, forty-one have been given approval from the regional office to grow genetically modified crops (GMCs).

The following is a break down of SE refuges with GMCs is compiled from agency records PEER received under the Freedom of information Act:

Santee NWR: 1

North Louisiana Refuge Complex: 5

- Black Bayou Lake NWR
- D'Arbonne NWR
- Handy Brake NWR
- Red River NWR
- Upper Ouachita NWR

Theodore Roosevelt Complex: 7

- Hillside NWR
- Holt Collier NWR
- Mathews Brake NWR
- Morgan Brake NWR
- Panther Swamp NWR
- Theodore Roosevelt NWR
- Yazoo NWR

Tennessee NWR: 1

Cache River NWR: 1

Wapanocca NWR: 1

West Tennessee Complex: 4

- Reelfoot NWR
- Chickasaw NWR
- Lower Hatchie NWR
- Lake Isom NWR.

Bald Knob NWR: 1

Central Louisiana Complex: 3

- Lake Ophelia NWR
- Grand Cote NWR
- Catahoula NWR

Mattamuskeet NWR: 1

Wheeler NWR: 1

Key Cave NWR: 1

Clarks River NWR: 1

North Mississippi Complex: 3

- Tallahatchie NWR
- Dahomey NWR
- Cold Water NWR

Holla Bend NWR: 1

Noxubee NWR: 1

Pocosin Lakes NWR: 1

Eufaula NWR: 1

Felsenthal NWR: 1

St. Catherine Creek NWR: 1

White River NWR: 1

Alligator River NWR: 1

Pee Dee NWR: 1

Lacassine NWR: 1