

Jarvis Retreats on Park Resource Protections

Dropped ban on lead-based ammo and tackle in parks

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/national-parks-should-stick-to-their-guns-on-lead-ammo-ban.html>

Cut a deal to cut a transmission corridor through Delaware Water Gap – the Grand Canyon of the East – and the Appalachian National Scenic Trail

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/power-play-at-delaware-water-gap-and-appalachian-trail.html>

Threw Big Cypress wilds open to swamp buggies

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/federal-lawsuit-to-keep-big-cypress-addition-lands-wild.html>

Reneged on promised protections for Mojave Desert tortoise

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/park-service-reneges-on-mojave-desert-tortoise-safeguard.html>

Pushed for new mountain biking trails to carve up park backcountry

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/park-backcountry-thrown-open-to-mountain-biking.html>

Opened parks to corporate bio-prospecting

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/park-service-pursues-corporate-research-pacts.html>

Promoted jet-skiing in national seashores and lakeshores

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/no-sequester-for-jet-skiing-in-national-parks.html>

Stalled wilderness protections for millions of park backcountry acres

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/national-park-service-shirks-wilderness-legacy.html>

Authorized commercial removal of plants and trees from parks under tribal agreements

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/park-service-misled-the-public-on-plant-harvest-plan.html>

Reversed a plan to remove 75% of plastic bottles from national park waste-streams

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/park-plastic-bottle-bans-work-but-remain-few-and-far-between.html>

Abandoned statutorily required safeguards against damage caused by park overcrowding

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/national-parks-punt-on-overcrowding.html>

Allowed commercial cell coverage to spill across park backcountry and wilderness

<http://www.peer.org/news/news-releases/yellowstone-backcountry-blanketed-with-cell-coverage.html>