

Corporate Science – New Jersey Style

The SAB Report (curiously dated 10/20/11) was put together by a subcommittee, which was all private sector scientists, including one from DuPont, a corporation which would benefit directly from a relaxation in groundwater contamination standards:

SAB IGWSRS REVIEW GROUP MEMBERS

Robert J. Lippencott, (Chair) Ph.D.: TRC Environmental, environmental science

John Gannon, Ph.D.: DuPont, microbiology

Peter Lederman, Ph.D. and P.E.: Peter & Associates, chemical engineering and P.E.

Nancy Rothman, Ph.D.: New Environmental Horizons Inc., physical organic chemistry

See full SAB make-up: http://www.state.nj.us/dep/newsrel/2010/10\_0041.htm